EFEPR 2026 - Registration

All attendees must register and receive a badge to participate. Read the registration instructions before registering. Use the online registration form.

REGISTRATION FEES
The registration fee depends on when you register and pay. To pay less, register and pay early. Fees include 21% or 12% VAT.

Registration fee includes:

- All congress sessions and exhibitions

- Lunches and coffee breaks are provided during the congress by the service of a 4-star hotel (high standard of Congress Hotel Brno)

- all congress materials (both paper and electronic versions)

- Companies provide expert tours of research laboratories or equipment on Sept. 3

(free of charge, only registration required)

- Access to the City-tour mobile app via the website of the conference

- 1-year membership to AMPERE

Evening program - themed dinners and a social evening, followed by a conference trip (Napoleon or OnSemi) on September 4th, must be booked during registration. The prices for these events are listed in the registration form.

Registration at EFEPR 2026 grants each delegate a one-year membership in the Ampere Society. For ease of administration, members registering for EFEPR 2026 will have their membership extended by 12 months beyond the end of their current registration period. Non-members (for instance, those attending EFEPR 2026 for the first time or those attending EFEPR 2026 after an absence and who have not renewed their Ampere Society membership in the meantime) will be automatically granted a year's membership from the date of their registration to attend EFEPR 2026.

Registration for PhD students is offered at a discounted rate, and the evening and accompanying program is available to them for a nominal fee of 10 EUR or for free (depending on the type). However, registration is required.

Accompanying persons (accommodation, meals, and other programs) need to be arranged individually after the main participant has registered, and this should be done via email (jan.taraba@ta-service.cz).

PAYMENT AND CONFIRMATION

Full payment of the registration fee is to be made before the congress in euros (EUR). When registering online, you will receive instant confirmation of successful registration to your email. Please note that invoicing will end at the latest one week before the event.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

At the end of the registration form, you will be given three alternatives for payment:

- The registration confirmation (email) will contain all the details needed to make a bank transfer. (Preferred payment method.)
- PDF-Invoice. You will receive an invoice to your email that will contain all the details needed to make a bank transfer, including a QR code for payment.
- Credit card: Visa and MasterCard are accepted.

Please note that a participant's registration, including accommodation booking, is valid only after the full payment has been made to the organiser's bank account.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

All cancellations and changes must be made in writing (email) to TA-SERVICE Congress Office (jan.taraba@ta-service.cz)

If a cancellation of registration is received by May 31st, 2026, a processing fee of 80 EUR will be charged. No refunds can be made for cancellations received after June 1, 2025.

Please note that no-show does not constitute cancellation. In case of no-show, the registration fee will not be refunded. Please note also that the fees are payable even if you cannot attend the conference. The registration can be transferred to another person from the same organisation.
